Fresh forms for flexibility

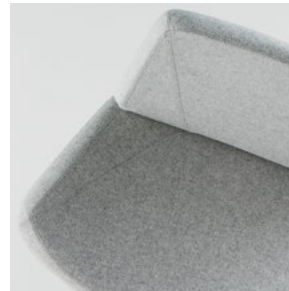

Slide Collection
Current Lounge Chair
 Designed by David MocarSKI

The Current Lounge Seating was the starting point for the entire Slide Collection, pieces that are mobile, comfortable, and flexible to suit the way we work now. David MocarSKI designed the lounge chair with extended "wings," for flexibility in ways of sitting, from casual to formal and even cross-legged.

A sofa offers comfort and flexibility for collaborative environments

Lines and contours were chosen for support and range of motion

The lounge chair is supportive of casual and formal sitting styles
